

Story Structure Intro

Character

Main Character

Z is a corporate slave without any savings who is cold, lonely, careful and has no interest in life. He is cautious and always following the rules.

Other Character

Mystery man – who passed a box to the hero.

Scientist – – who invented the synthetic eye prototype, which has some powerful functions inside.

Hannah – who is a girlfriend of the hero.

The crowd

Theme

Would a person who has no expectations and is stumbling through life, who has changed his perspective and rekindled his passion for life through synthetic eyes, but finds that he is living in an illusion, choose to continue using them at this time?

3ACT

ACT1//Beginning

(Player wake up in dark environment and there is a glowing item floating in the air, after touching it, play can see the world)

1. Location – bedroom

Z wakes up and gets ready to go to work as usual. But he finds out there is something different than before. There are suddenly appearing loads of advertisement windows regarding on the–state–of–the–art technologies in different layers. Z doesn't know what happened and try to ignore them because he has no interests in shopping.

2. Location – street

Z leaves his apartment and walks on the street. He has no idea why he can see different synthetic body advertisement windows in front of his eyes, when he tries to touch it and he cannot feel they're real. It feels they are attached to the physical advertisement signs and float in front of his view.

3. Suddenly there is a big promotion window occupied his whole view, which says 'be free to see the freedom' in a bold and big font. And there is a smaller lines below, which says 'try the perspective function out for free for 3 hours.'

4. Flashback & Cutscene

When Z was returning home from work a month ago, there was a mysterious man wearing all black handed him a box and saying that was an unique and powerful prototype developed by the top scientists at the moment, and it's only for a man at a time, so that he should try it. Z thought the man was crazy and decided to ignore him, but he shoved the box into Z's arms and ran away without a word. So Z had to take the box home with him, but he never thought to open it to see what was in it.

5. Back to street location –

He doesn't know what's going on but suddenly he sees there is a casino nearby and he got some inspirations from it. Maybe it'll be different. Then he clicks 'Try it out immediately' button on the window.

6. Location – casino (Inciting Incident)

When he got into the casino, he found out the world he can see is different than before. When he passes the tables, he could even see the number at the back of the card, it seemed like his eye like an X-ray machine. But he still wondered whether if only him could see things like that. He first watched a few games and observed everyone's expressions. He seemed to be looking at these games from the perspective of God, and found that only he seemed to have this function. Then he decided to join the games, of course, he won a lot. But he knew it was unwise to always win. That was why he loses at some games on purpose. Overall, he still caught a decent sum of money and everyone just thought he was lucky.

ACT2//Middle

1. At the same time, the window come out and warn him the trial time is up. If you still want to use it, you need to pay for the function. The price is not low but Z can afford that using the money he just earned. After he bought it, he found out that something similar to the equipment box in the game appeared under the perspective, and the perspective function icon that he just bought appeared there.
2. Since then he was addicted to gambling, and one gambling was a day. Gradually because of his skills and gambling records, he became wealthy, popular, famous and made a lots of new friends, even met a beautiful girlfriend, which was he never got before. But during the dating, he found gradually his girlfriend was not true to him, it felt like the most attractive thing to her was his money but not his personality. And feels like he has been living in lies everyday.
3. Climax – Z found that the eye was releasing a new function now which can help him to identify if someone is lying. So Z bought the second function. He found out that his girlfriend was lying indeed but it's basically half for truths and half for lies, so it's tough for him to distinguish truth from lies for some specific saying. Z felt so depressed.

ACT3//End

1. The eye is releasing a new function now, which is called you can see through inside of human's mind. The prices for buying each function got higher and higher but Z bought it without hesitation.
2. Z back to his most familiar places — casino, when he looked around, he found out that everyone, including his so-called best friends, his girlfriend, all of them were not sincere to him.
3. Z was on edge of breaking down emotionally so he rushed to the street without saying anything. When he saw passersby on the street, they still got the negative impressions towards him.
"This man only gambles"
"This person is really stupid and has a lot of money"

4. Cutscene –

There was a text in the box.

‘Keep it or pass it on.’

5. End with text – "Are you still willing to wear this eye?"